Professional statement

Mohamed Elgamal

My name is Mohamed Elgamal. I am a disciplined and analytical aspiring cybersecurity professional and Computer and Communications Engineering student at Mansoura University, with a strong foundation in networking demonstrated by my CCNA certification and a background in computer science and programming through Harvard's CS50x. I value structured problem-solving, continuous learning, and protecting sensitive information. I aim to build on my technical foundation to help organizations identify security threats, mitigate risks, and protect their digital infrastructure and data integrity.
